Schools and colleges should be brought more effectively into the movement by arranging for the study of suitable readers and the delivery of a course of lectures in these institutions just prior to the Babyweek and there by (1) holding tests (2) or essay competns (3) demonstration classes (4) getting health plays written by boys and girls and (5) exhibiting work done during the training in the Exhibition, during the Babyweek celebrations.

22) The Civic & Social Progress Association is willing to procure the readers and lectures for use in the schools and to arrange for the tests being conducted and to give prizes if the D.P.I. permits the teaching of the subjects in the schools. It apparently expects the D.P.I. to arrange for the lectures being delivered in the schools.

NATIONAL BABY WEEK,

VICEREGAL LODGE, DELHI.

12

Dear Sir,

In connection with the National Baby Week Celebrations in 1925, Her Excellency The Countess of Reading is extremely anxious that greater efforts should be made next year to make the objects of Baby Week known among young people and to draw schools, colleges, etc., more effectually into the movement by making special provision for their instruction and by rousing their interest. The National Baby Week Council realise that the school syllabus is a very full one, and that extra strain should not be put upon the teachers in this connection. They would like however to put forward for your consideration some very simple schemes, suggested by persons with previous practical experience, whereby a beginning might be made which could be elaborated in future years.

The National Baby Week Council can recommend simple Hygiene readers for schools, especially a course of 12 lectures and demonstrations for elder gilrs on "Care of the Baby." In many places, such courses already exist under competent teachers, but it is felt that what is wanted in certain places are books of instruction - or popular lectures, so simple that a teacher who is not an expert in the subject can give the lessons in his or her own vernacular. This need the National Baby Week Council has endeavoured to meet by selecting Readers and also preparing Special Baby Week Lectures to be given in the Schools shortly before the local Baby Week Celebrations are due. The Readers and the Lectures are in the principal vernaculars.

The Council would suggest that (1) the courses of instruction in schools might - with the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction - culminate during Baby Week in examination or practical tests on the set books held by some qualified p[erson] such as a medical man or woman, trained nursing superintend[ent] health visitor, and prizes be offered by the local Baby [Week] Co[uncil] case, or where plans have not already been made for reaching the schools, the National Baby Week Council venture to make these suggestions to you, and will be glad to help in any way possible in carrying them out.

Yours truly,

Sd.

Secretary.

10. S. Narayan Rao, Esq.
11. C. Machaiya, Esq., B.A.

1. Read and recorded the Proceedings of the meeting held on 9th September 1924.

2. Read and recorded the Progress reports of the Central and Branch Committees for the month of November 1924.

3. The scheme for the Civic and Social Association Hospital drafted by Rao Bahadur Dr. C. B. Rama Rao was discussed in all its aspects, Dr. Miss Jhirad taking part in the discussion. How and where the money was to come from, the composition of the establishment and its pay, the training to be given to the midwives, how they have to be recruited and what class of society they have to be drawn from, whether the District Boards would agree to pay the cost of the training, how many beds the hospital should have and all similar matters was discussed in detail. Dr. Rama Rao met all the arguments and answered all criticisms. His personal experience of the working of a similar hospital which he helped to start at Madras served him in good stead in answering all questions satisfactorily.

At the conclusion of the discussion, it was resolved that the scheme of opening a Civic Association Hospital on the lines suggested by Dr. Rama Rao be approved and all necessary action taken to bring it into existence and that the Presidents of the District Boards be addressed requesting them to bear the cost of training a midwife each and to depute a respectable lady to undergo the necessary training.

4. Resolved that the National Baby Week be organised and celebrated in January next, but without the Exhibition and that the Maternity and Child Welfare Association and the Branch Committee of the Civic and Social Progress Association be requested to hold it in Bangalore and Mysore Cities respectively as in last year, the Deputy Commissioners of Districts making the necessary arrangements for its celebration in the respective Districts.

(9)

5. Read letter dated 20th November written by Mr. A. B. Latthe, Chairman of the Indian National Social Conference to be held at Belgaum during Christmas to Dr. C. B. Rama Rao requesting him to enrol members to the Reception Committee and evince an interest in the cause of the Conference.

Read also the letter dated 27th November 1924 from Dr. C. B. Rama Rao enclosing the above letter and suggesting that Mysore Social workers should join the Conference.

Resolved that Rao Bahadur Dr. C. B. Rama Rao be deputed to the National Social Conference to be held at Belgaum in order to represent the Association at the Conference.

6. Resolved that Dr. C. B. Rama Rao be requested to proceed to Bombay to study the Beggar problem as well as the question of legislation for the raising of the marriageable age of girls and that his travelling expenses to and from Bombay (viz., single second classfare each way) be borne by the Association.

7. Resolved that the sincere thanks of the Association be communicated to Dr. (Mrs.) Ratnamma Isaac, L.M.S. for the invaluable services she rendered to the Association for a period of three years by voluntarily taking charge of the antenatal and Baby Clinics of the Milk Depot opened by the Association at Ganigarpet and working them with wholehearted devotion so as to make them popular and useful to the community.

NATIONAL BABY WEEK, 1925.

November 1924.

I

In connection with the coming Baby Week Celebrations, the National Baby Week Council has decided to offer 4 Gold Medals in addition to 36 Silver Medals to Governor's Provinces, and 1 Gold Medal and 3 Silver Medals to competitors in the Indian States for Prize Essays.

There will be 4 subjects for essays from Governor's Provinces:-

1. For Health Officers.
2. For Health Visitors.
3. For School Teachers.
4. For the General Public.

Provincial Committees to whom will be given, on request, 1 Silver Medal in each class, stamped "National Baby Week, India" and engraved "Presented by the National Baby Week Council" will be asked to judge the various Essays submitted by competitors within their Province and allot the silver medal to the best essay submitted in each class, in addition to any awards they may decide to make for those essays taking a second and third place. In each Province the best essay in each class should be sent by the Provincial Committee on or before March 31st to the National Baby Week Council who will then allot 1 Gold Medal to the best essay in each class of those submitted by all the Provinces.

There will be one class only for Indian States, i.e., "For the General Public", and all essays from the States should be sent on or before March 31st to the National Baby Week Council who will allot 1 Gold Medal to that adjudged best, and 3 silver Medals to those taking 2nd, 3rd and 4th places.

All essays must be translated into English before being sent up to the National Baby Week Council.

Essays must not exceed 3,000 words in length.

No essay received in Delhi after March 31st will be eligible for a prize. Subject for the Essays are as follows:—

Subjects for Prize Essays.

Class 1.- For Health Officers.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. fm 3754-5 / fm 91-24-2 dated 26th November 1924 calling for my views regarding the proposal to bring schools and Colleges into close touch with Baby-Week Movement, I have the honor to state that I am in sympathy with the objects of the Baby-Week Committee as regards a wider diffusion of knowledge relating to the means of securing the welfare of babies. But I think that the course of study recommended will be of practical interest and value only to grown up girls, preferably those who are married and are faced with these situations in life. Having regard to Indian conditions the introduction of this study in earlier stages is not likly to yield the desired results. I should, therefore, recommend it for normal schools. Since the curriculum is already crowded, I do not, however, wish that such courses should be made compulsory. They may be made optional, lectures and demonstrations being arranged outside the regular school hours. The prizes offered will be a sufficient inducement to take to them. I should, however, like to know the scope of the course, and copies of lectures and readers said to have been prepared may kindly be obtained. I have also to add that it will not be possible for the department to arrange for these lectures and demonstrations, private agenies such as the Y.W.C.A. or Red Cross Branches will have to undertake the work. I shall, however, be glad to afford every facility in the matter.

The other suggestions regarding the making of models of doolies, simple baby's beds etc., in connection with handwork classes for boys could be given effect to.
